UNC COASTAL STUDIES INSTITUTE BOARD OF DIRECTORS WILL MEET MARCH 9 AND 10 IN MANTEO

MANTEO- The UNC Coastal Studies Institute Board of Directors will hold their bi-annual meeting at 108 Budleigh, Manteo on March 8 and 9. The meeting will cover research and education program area reports as well as a progress report on the future of the 40 acre campus located on Roanoke Island.

The Board of Directors is the advising body for the UNC Coastal Studies Institute (CSI), an inter-university collaborative program under UNC General Administration. CSI's mission is to undertake research, offer educational opportunities, provide community outreach programs and enhance communications among those concerned with the unique history, culture, and environment of the maritime counties of North Carolina. The Board of Directors is chaired by Joan Weld and made up of nine members and five ex-officio members, including CSI's director, Dr. Nancy White.
